

Europe's Top 10 Luxury Hotel Spas

Combining beautiful landscapes, a first-rate hotel, and a posh spa is a recipe for excellence. And that formula is what makes Europe's Top 10 Luxury Hotel Spas so superb. Each of the following hotel spas boasts the allure of a European location and entices guests with the luxury of a high-end resort. Visit one of these premier destinations for a relaxing vacation unlike any other.

Kempinski Hotel Barbaros Bay, Turkey

The Kempinski Hotel Barbaros Bay sits on the shores of the Aegean Sea in Bodrum, Turkey. This resort spreads high style across the coastline, with multiple pools and modern architecture spreading over its grounds. And the Six Senses Spa, which features Turkish hammam in addition to European treatments, is a dream come true.

Porto Elounda De Luxe Hotel, Crete

Another place to find a Six Senses Spa is in Crete at the Porto Elounda De Luxe Hotel. This seaside paradise will overwhelm the senses with its beauty and unbelievable luxury. With a golf course, shopping center, pools, and, of course, the spa, it has everything a luxury seeker could want in a vacation destination.

Beau-Rivage Palace, Switzerland

Switzerland is home to another of Europe's best hotel spas with its Beau-Rivage Palace in Lausanne. The hotel itself is outstanding, but its spa, Cinq Mondes, is what really sets the property apart. Filled with different kinds of steam baths and pools from around the world, Cinq Mondes is unquestionably the place to unwind in town.

Four Seasons Hotel George V, France

As would be expected, one of the Europe's most fabulous hotel spas is located in Paris, the center of fashion and high style. The Four Seasons Hotel George V is just steps from the famed Champs-Elysees, and it offers unparalleled access to the city. An added bonus: the spa is classically perfect.

Anassa, Cyprus

Cyprus is home to Anassa, an ultra-luxurious resort that takes its name from the ancient Greek word for "queen". The resort's recently upgraded Thalassa Spa takes a holistic approach to well being, with spa cuisine, treatments, health consultations, and even week-long programs designed to get guests in tune with their goals.

Park Hotel Kenmare, Ireland

Travelers to Ireland will also encounter a posh hotel spa if they trek to Kerry, where the Park Hotel Kenmare steals the show. This gorgeous stone building towers over the lush countryside near Kenmare Bay. Inside, the SAMAS spa pampers visitors with classic spa treatments infused with local botanicals.

Intercontinental Aphrodite Hills, Cyprus

Look back to Cyprus for another extraordinary resort. The Intercontinental Aphrodite Hills is surrounded by peacock blue waters; the property is home to a championship golf course, first-rate gourmet restaurants, and plenty of leisure activities. And then there's the Retreat Spa, a sophisticated haven for relaxation in paradise.

Choupana Hills Resort, Madeira

Madeira, Portugal is an island teeming with luxury. One particularly luxurious destination of the isle is the Choupana Hills Resort, a luxury destination set on a hill overlooking the bustling city of Funchal. The spa, which is inspired by the clouds, indulges guests with airy treatments and extravagant amenities.

Le Sirenuse, Italy

Positano, Italy is home to Le Sirenuse, one of the world's leading small hotels. This charming abode houses the Aveda Concept Salon, a modern spa facility that soothes guests with multiple posh treatment options. There's also a quaint boutique on site, which sells one of the leading fragrances in Italy, a house-developed unisex scent.

La Residencia, Mallorca

Finally, Mallorca is an island overflowing with luxury. And one of the most posh establishments on the island is La Residencia, a hilltop escape that bursts with gardens. The Spa at La Residencia is fabulous in its own right; using only the finest products and employing the best estheticians, the spa is a sanctuary of tranquility, luxury style.

Europe's Top 10 Luxury Hotel Spas all pack in the posh little extras. These facilities flaunt world-class golf courses, gourmet restaurants, stunning guest rooms, and refined spas. They're the perfect destinations for luxury seekers searching for the best in Europe.

Photos: Kempinski, Four Seasons, La Residencia

Date: 2010-04-26

Article link:

<https://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-europes-top-10-luxury-hotel-spas-article1190>