

Canada summer camps: general public/ parents survey

There is little question that parents hold the key in terms of the short and long-term economic health of children's camps. As such, parents represent the primary target for marketing and communications initiatives. The general public/parents survey identifies a variety of attitudes and behaviours that can be used to maximize the industry's success in these initiatives...

Date: 2007-04-23

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-canada-summer-camps-general-public-parents-survey-article172>