

Best Holiday Destinations for Kids

Often people are flummoxed when it comes to selecting perfect holiday destinations for kids. The choice of any spot should be done in a way that it excites and entertains everyone in the family. With kids around one should also take into consideration the climatic and geographical conditions of the place. The spot should be well connected by all the means of transports available to make travel with kids easy. Everyone on the tour should enjoy to the fullest and no one should be bored especially the kids.

There are a number of tourist destinations around the world which are ideal for kids and the family as a whole. Some of the most recommended spots include the following.

Florida: Say the name of Walt Disney and see the expression in the face of kids. Disneyland is a real dream of every kid. It is perhaps the world's largest theme park for children but even adults find it irresistible.

Fiji: Fiji is sure to bring smiles on the faces of your kids. Fiji is known for its tropical climate, historic richness and its friendly people. It is an archipelago in the southern part of Pacific Ocean. There are several hotels to suit the requirements of discriminating tastes of the tourists. There are a number of things to do at Fiji. Right from snorkeling, sailing, diving, trekking to dancing the meke their local dance, Fiji has something to offer for kids as well as adults. There are museums and monuments of historical importance which are full of knowledge for the kids. Orchid Island which is the cultural center of Fiji is a must visit place and is sure to be liked by all the family members due to its natural beauty.

Thailand: Known as the land of smiles it is sure to make your kids smile. Thailand has been a hot favorite of all tourists due to its natural beauty, super cool beaches, and food and more importantly low cost. Kids love people who are friendly and receive well and the Thais are known for their cultural heritage and friendly nature. You can laze on a pristine beach watching your kids playing in the sea water without a care about the world. The main tourist destinations of Thailand are Phuket, Bangkok and Hua Hin. These places are laced with beautiful beaches, golf courses and various water theme parks.

South Africa: For those kids who love animals Africa is sure to fulfill the wildest of their dreams. Even the toddlers will get engaged hearing the voices of these animals. The famous Kruger's Park and Serengeti National Park of Tanzania are spread over thousands of acres of land where kids can see their favorite animals roaming live. World famous white bearded zebras are the main attraction of Serengeti Park. The "Big Five" of Africa, the elephant, the rhinoceros, lion, tiger and Cape buffalo can be found in these parks. Parents just need to relax and enjoy the safaris, savannahs and the jungles and the mountains while kids get amazed by watching their favorites and literally touching them.

Lapland, Finland: Without snow Christmas doesn't seem like Christmas. There is no better place than Lapland with its bauble filled shebang. Situated far above the Arctic Circle and touted to be Santa's official home with pine trees soaring, icy hotels and the northern lights, Lapland is child's delight on the occasion of Christmas.

Date: 2012-10-29

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-kids-holiday-top-5-destinations-article1946>