

Lisbon's Beauty - Heritage Av Liberdade Hotel

Heritage Av Liberdade Hotel is located on the corner of cosmopolitan Avenida da Liberdade and Largo da Anunciada, offering a calm and intimate atmosphere, next to the Lavra funicular that transports visitors to the top of one of the most beautiful hills in Lisbon, Portugal. In the seventeenth century, the Largo da Anunciada housed a monastery of Dominican friars and the Ericeiras Palace, which were both destroyed in the 1755 earthquake. The fire that raged within the palace consumed one of the largest libraries in Lisbon and also a highly valuable art collection that included paintings by Rubens, Corregio and Titian.

Date: 2007-09-24

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-lisbons-beauty-heritage-av-liberdade-hotel-article283>