

Revolution in Gastronomy! Waiterless Restaurant

A new restaurant in Nuremberg, Germany has replaced the entire wait-staff with...gravity. In 's Baggers, the kitchen is situated in the roof of the restaurant. Your meals, which are ordered and paid for via touch screen computer, slide down to you from the kitchen on metal rails, which corkscrew down to your table with all the grace of your favorite bowling ball zooming back up the lane from behind the pins to join you once more...
