

Make a Difference While You Travel: Try Volunteering!

The thought of volunteering during your vacation may have crossed your mind – or has it? Your idea of a vacation may be to lie on a warm Pacific beach or hike in the Alps and that's a wonderful thing. But there might be more in your vacation future. Why not spend some time caring for orphans in Africa or for sea turtles in South America? After all, there's no reason you can't make the world a better place while you see it!
