

American Students Not Left Behind

The student and youth travel industry continues to be one of the fastest growing revenue producing segments in the travel industry. Student and youth travel is travel by youth 25 years of age and under, away from their community, not for business, and not primarily to visit friends or relatives. Student and youth travel includes: day and overnight trips and tours, domestic and international travel, and group and individual travel...

Date: 2008-02-25

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-american-students-not-left-behind-article443>