

Chain Hotels Attracted to Poland

The prospect of Poland's co-hosting of EURO 2012 Football Championships, a favourable economic situation in the region, a steady inflow of EU funds for the development of tourism, insufficient investments in the sector in the past – all these factors will cause the value of Poland's hotel construction market to increase two and a half times to well over €250m within the next five years...

Date: 2008-03-31

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-chain-hotels-attracted-to-poland-article462>