

Czech Tourist Board: Experience and Impression

Over the years of its democratic history the Czech Republic has become an important destination both for the leisure travel as well as for business tourism. The country in the heart of Europe is popular among tourists especially because of its historical monuments (12 UNESCO listed properties), quality SPA facilities (e.g. Karlovy Vary), affordable prices and friendly people. In 2007 almost 6.7 million people visited the country which was a 3.8% increase in the number of incoming tourists. The Czech Republic is a favorite destination especially for Germans, British and Italians. The most popular destination was as in the previous years the capital city Prague...

Date: 2008-04-28

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-czech-tourist-board-experience-and-impression-article496>