

Interview: Tourism Is NOT the Top Priority for Czech Leaders

The Association of Tour Operators and travel agents of the Czech Republic (ACCKA) is a national non-profit association that represents 240 travel trade companies. Growing numbers of the incoming tourists as well as further development of the travel trade are thus quite important for the association. Tourism-Review.com was interested in their opinion about the Czech tourism industry as well as the activities of the national tourist board – CzechTourism. The following questions were answered by Mr. Tomio Okamura, the member of ACCKA's presidium and the spokesperson of the association...
