

Romanian Tourism: Minimal Contribution to GDP

According to the latest figures, tourism in Romania has a minimal contribution to the GDP, while jobs in this sector are regarded as a 'last resort' career option due to the low salaries. Although, in terms of growth rate, the domestic market is at the top of the ranking (which includes 176 countries), in terms of value, Romania is positioned towards the bottom of the ranking of tourism-derived revenues...

Date: 2008-04-28

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-romanian-tourism-minimal-contribution-to-gdp-article510>