

Starting a Gift Store: what Canadian business services advice to novices?

To succeed, you need a personal touch with customers, a keen sense of what they want and a flair for displaying merchandise. You should have skills in managing, selling, accounting, purchasing and advertising. Before starting your own store, gain experience by working in a gift store and taking related training and courses. The industry is very competitive – gift stores have the third highest failure rate among retail outlets...

Date: 2007-01-29

Article link:

<https://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-starting-a-gift-store-what-canadian-business-services-advice-to-novices-article60>