

Mountain Gorillas Smile as Locals Dance to Eco-solutions in Rwanda

Rwanda is a very small (26,338 square km) country, two degrees south of the equator in central Africa. It is the most densely populated country in Africa with a population of approximately 8,600,000 people who can expect to live to the age of 47. Commonly referred to a country of “a thousand hills and a million smiles”, Rwanda has gone through the worst catastrophe in human history – the 1994 genocide where more than 800.000 people were killed in a hundred days...
