

The Hundred Spire Prague: Too High-Rise

The historic center of Prague, the capital of the Czech Republic, was inscribed on the UNESCO List not long after the end of Communism in the country – in 1992. Built between the 11th and 18th centuries, the Old Town, the Lesser Town and the New Town speak of the great architectural and cultural influence enjoyed by this city since the Middle Ages. The many magnificent monuments, such as Hradcany Castle, St Vitus Cathedral, Charles Bridge and numerous churches and palaces, were built mostly in the 14th century under the Holy Roman Emperor, Charles IV...
