

European Delivery: The Ultimate Souvenir

Dreaming of a new European car? Dreaming of a European vacation? How about both at the same time? Picture this: you order a new car at your local dealership at a discounted no-haggling price, you and your partner fly to Europe (maybe even for free, courtesy of the carmaker) and vacation for a few days, weeks or even months all around Europe in your new car, saving the cost of a rental car. After experiencing triple-digit speeds on the autobahn, visiting all your favorite destinations from Amsterdam to Zürich, you drop off the car, fly home and wait a month or two for your new car to be shipped to your local dealership...
