

Ba<sup>9</sup>: A New Tourist Destination

Ba<sup>9</sup> is a small, borderline municipality in Serbia in southwest Vojvodina. It lies on the bank of the Danube River and currently enjoys the rising numbers of tourists. The local authorities are well aware of the fact that tourism can contribute to the faster development of the small municipality because it is a good starting point for greater involvement of the local providers into the process of transformation towards efficient economy...

Date: 2008-09-29

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-ba-269-a-new-tourist-destination-article640>