

Hotel business in Russia: Leaders & Losers

Many travel professionals state that there are three main tourist's needs each city should satisfy: sightseeing, restaurants, and accommodation. If any of the components does not fulfill the tourist's wishes, it immediately influences his or her willingness to come back again. The amount of tourists visiting Russia has lately been going down. It seems that there is no problem with sightseeing and restaurants. So is there any connection between incoming tourism and the hotel industry in Russia?
