

Improving the Quality of Life

Karlova Studanka Spa in the Czech Republic recently decided to analyze the influence of their spa treatment of the patients with chronic diseases on their quality of life. A total of 167 were randomly selected (out of 3216 patients who went through the spa treatment in the given year). The evaluation of the patients considerably depended on their individualities...

Date: 2008-11-24

Article link:

<http://www.tourism-review.com/travel-tourism-magazine-improving-the-quality-of-life-article691>