

Holland: City Pass for Amsterdam and Beyond

Holland Pass is the all-in-one pass for any individual traveler visiting Amsterdam or other major cities in the Netherlands, such as Utrecht, The Hague, Rotterdam and other sights of interest. The pass offers savings and benefits at major museums, popular attractions, sightseeing tours, souvenir shops, public transport, bike rental, cheese and clog farms, mill museums, recommended restaurants, shopping tips and much more.

In addition, pass holders enjoy convenience as they have the advantage of gaining fast-track entry at major museums and attractions! Whether you are traveling through Holland or enjoying a city-break in Amsterdam, Utrecht, The Hague or Rotterdam, Holland Pass will definitely help discover the highlights of Amsterdam and beyond!

Holland Pass offers a choice of 5 free admissions (XL edition 6 free admissions) at museums and attractions and in addition unlimited discounts with "Holland Pass discount card" varying from 10-50% on entry at museums, attractions and at restaurants & shops. Pass holders can visit at their own pace, as Holland Pass is valid for 1 year! (edition 09/10 valid from February 1 2009 - March 2010). The free admissions and discounts offer great "value for money". When visiting more than 2 or 3 museums and attractions, pass holders will always save money as opposed to purchasing individual tickets. Savings continue with the discount card.

Pass holders have the advantage of jumping the queue and gaining fast-track entry at: Van Gogh Museum, Rijksmuseum, Hermitage Amsterdam, 1 hour canal cruise, Artis Royal Zoo, Madame Tussauds, The Amsterdam Dungeon, Zuiderzeemuseum, Madurodam and Keukenhof, the place where spring starts in all its glory.

In addition to savings, benefits and convenience, Holland Pass also offers service. A full-colour guide book is included offering detailed information on each museum and attraction, information on each city, walking tours, city maps, recommended restaurants and shopping tips. Pass holders are well-informed on the wide variety of museums and attractions in Amsterdam and in other major cities such as Utrecht, The Hague and Rotterdam.
