

WHAT TO EXPECT FROM A FEBRUARY HALF-TERM BREAK AT BUTLINS

When the leftover turkey has finally run out and you are thinking about taking the Christmas decorations down, it is not unusual to get a touch of the January blues. But would not it be great if you had the affordable UK break to look forward to?

Here are just a few reasons why the February half-term holidays could be the perfect time to head to Butlins.

Loads of great entertainment

Our resorts are famed for being able to keep people of all ages entertained and if you book a February half term break at Butlins you can expect all kinds of wonderful shows. Our Redcoats ensure everyone is looked after, plus there are daytime and evening shows, live music and special performances to look forward to across our three main stages.

Fabulous special guests

With our indoor Skyline Pavilions, you do not even need to worry about the weather spoiling your fun. If you decide to check out the great live shows we have planned for 2013, you can expect to see special guests like Dick and Dom, as well as familiar faces from Sesame Street and appearances from Bob the Builder, Pingu, Barney, Fireman Sam and many more.

A comfortable place to stay

At Butlins, we know every family is different. This is why we have a range of accommodation choices across our UK holiday parks that will suit all types of visitors. There are comfy rooms, well-equipped apartments and contemporary hotels - all of which are designed to make you and your loved ones feel right at home.

Delicious food for all occasions

Whether you want to grab something quick or organise a special meal, we have an eatery on-site to suit your needs. Maybe you just want something simple? In which case, our great cafes and family-friendly pubs could be perfect. If, on the other hand, you feel like celebrating, we have some great restaurants that offer more of a fine dining experience.

Of course, when you visit a Butlins resort, you can expect all the usual fun and facilities we are famous for. This includes games, sports and activities as well as indoor water fun at our Water worlds parks. If you want to book a February short break, prices start at £50 per person and we also have free child places available. However, these are once more proving popular so you should book now to avoid disappointment!
