

THE COST EFFECTIVENESS OF RENTING A CARAVAN VS. STAYING IN MOTELS

While many people assume they'll be staying in a motel on their vacation, another excellent option for travel is renting a caravan. Renting a caravan for your next trip is often much more affordable than staying in a motel and is also beneficial in many other ways. Check out the list below to see how you can save by renting a caravan for your next vacation.

You won't have to pay for a motel room. When renting a caravan for your trip, you can stay right in your vehicle, as they have plenty of beds, so you won't have to rent one or more motel rooms.

Caravan parking is much cheaper than lodging. You can easily find parking for your caravan at many campsites, and it's not nearly as expensive as it would be to stay in a motel. Check out DriveNow for campervan pricing & availability for your next trip.

You can also find free parking. Although you may have to search around a bit more, many places offer free overnight parking for caravans. You may just want to research in advance, as some places require advance notice for free parking.

You won't have to pay for room service or dining out. Caravans come fully equipped with kitchens, so you can easily bring along all the food you need and cook it right in your caravan. This will save you a ton of money when you consider how much room service at a motel and dining out every day of your vacation may cost you.

Caravans are an excellent choice for traveling with a larger group of people. When traveling with 5 or more people, renting a caravan is much more economical than staying in a motel, where you will most likely need to book more than one room for your stay.

Vacationing in the off-season can save you even more money. If you're planning on vacationing during the off-season, you may be able to save even more, since many caravan rental companies offer discounts during this time of year.

Overall, choosing to rent a caravan instead of staying in a motel can save you a ton of money, if you plan everything out correctly, and in addition to the monetary savings, there are many other benefits of choosing to rent a caravan for your next vacation. You easily have everything with you on your whole trip, so you don't have to worry about unpacking everything in your hotel room. You also have a bathroom with you at all times, so you don't have to worry about stopping at rest stops for emergency bathroom breaks. In addition, you have the convenience of stopping in multiple places without having to book motels in different cities. Renting a caravan is an awesome way to save you money on your vacation, so you can better spend your time doing more activities with your family and all of the convenient options will make your vacation much less stressful and plenty more enjoyable.
