

INFOGRAPHICS: CHINA OUTBOUND TOURISM

The number of the Chinese outbound tourists will reach 174 million in 4 years, with a tremendous spending power of USD 264 billion. The last year over 107 million Chinese made overseas trips, a 20 per cent up on 2013.

The Chinese love of travelling is incredible. After two decades of fast double-digit growth, China has raised into one of the leading global source markets for foreign travel. About 80 per cent of the foreign trips made by the Chinese today are holiday trips.

Chinese international travelers tend to be younger and richer, with independent opinions and knowledge of high-tech. China outbound tourism is booming fueled by tech-savvy of so-called 'millennials' aged 18 to 35.

Tourism Review, in association with The Global Tourism Economy Forum, a comprehensive window into the enormous China travel market, brings the latest china outbound tourism market data in popular infographic mode:

http://www.tourism-review.com/infographics/gtef_outbound_china.jpg

Date: 2015-09-07

Article link: <https://www.tourism-review.com/infographics-china-outbound-travel-2015-news4709>