

UNIQUE AND UNUSUAL - BRAND NEW OPPORTUNITY FOR PUBLICITY

Dear readers,

After a short summer break, we are glad to introduce an exclusive opportunity for publicity with our new Tourism Review series of articles titled “Unique & Unusual”.

The publications will present various unique destinations and travel experiences. For example, the series will start with articles on “Top 10 Unique Guided Tours in Paris” and “Top 5 Unusual Venues in Brussels”.

Our editorial team will also focus on the less known tourist sites in well-known destinations, unusual and unique accommodation options, and much more.

The brand new series introduces an unparalleled opportunity for travel companies to present their special services and/or facilities worldwide with Tourism Review multilingual publications and inspire travel trade professionals and others across different markets.

Our editorial team welcomes your offers and ideas about the unique, unusual, or special travel services to be publicized in all 10 Tourism Review language editions.
