

The Industry's Largest Faith Tourism Business Seminar Program at Expo 2010

The World Religious Travel Association business seminars for the November 13-16 World Religious Travel Expo 2010 will serve as the industry's most comprehensive educational program on faith-based tourism and hospitality. The two-day curriculum will feature 40-plus industry experts, including several published authors. For the third straight year, travel agents and providers can earn up to three continuing educational units through The Travel Institute thetravelinstitute.com by attending and participating in the Expo business and educational seminar program.

"As sharing business acumen and education about the religious travel market is a key mission of WRTA and our annual Expo, we are ecstatic about this year's lineup of speakers and seminars," said Kevin J. Wright, WRTA president. "The topics cover virtually every segment of the industry from product development to sales to consumer service to word-of-mouth-marketing and much more. In addition, we'll host several open forums whereby delegates can ask their own questions and share stories of success with fellow religious travel professionals, colleagues and experts."

The business and educational seminar topics for the World Religious Travel Expo 2010 include:

- Who is Today's Religious Traveler Consumer? How Can You Best Serve Them?
- How to Most Effectively Market and Sell to today's Religious Travel Consumer.
- How Can You Find the Right Tour/Ground Operator for Your Religious Travel Program—and Why is it Key to Your Success?
- Discover the Holy Land and Enrich Your Biblical Lands Portfolio.
- Develop a Winning and Diverse Portfolio to the World's Most Visited Religious Sites.
- Discover Faith-based Vacations, Attractions, & Events—Right Here in North America.
- Enrich Your Religious Travel Program with New Faith-based Vacations: Cruises, Volunteer Vacations, Local Getaways, Attractions and Much More.
- Open Forum: Q&A with Biblical Lands Representatives.
- Open Forum: Q&A Plus Discover New Ideas for Your Religious Travel Program.
