With a vast number of islands, Indonesia is one of the biggest archipelagoes in the world. It contains over 17,000 islands including popular ones such as Java, Sumatra, Borneo, Sulawesi and New Guinea. Apart from that, Indonesia is a land gifted with spectacular beaches, friendly people and vibrant culture. If you've been looking to visit this beautiful country, the following destinations should be

Nusa Dua

For the perfect holiday, do not forget to visit Nusa Dua, one of the most attractive tourist spots in the country. The place is full of gorgeous beaches that will allow you to engage in various water sports. For accommodation, you will get numerous luxurious resorts the likes of Grand Hyatt and Westin Resort. You'll also enjoy Indonesian cuisine at the Raja Bali Nusa Dua and Paisan Restaurant.

Yogyakarta

Yogyakarta is a beautiful place to visit. It is a cultural destination and is located near the Borobudur Temple, a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Yogyakarta reflects the history and traditions of the Indonesians and if you want to learn the same, include this place in your plans. Moreover, don't forget to carry a pocket Wi-Fi device if you like playing gambling card games online during your free time.

Mount Bromo

Also known as Gunung Bromo, Mount Bromo is an active volcano which emits white smoke regularly. This makes it dangerous but still one of the most visited destinations in Indonesia. Some of the activities you can do here include hiking and trekking, though these are only possible between April and October. While you're around, you can also get accommodation at hotels such as Java Banano Bromo.

Raja Ampat Islands

Raja Ampat, which means Four Kings, comprises hundreds of small islands. The islands are popular for their coral reefs, beautiful beaches and marshy lagoons, making them a perfect destination for travellers. Here, you can take part in various water sports including snorkelling, kayaking and underwater diving. You can also choose to just relish the natural landscapes that are rich in diverse marine flora and fauna.

Lake Toba

Lake Toba is the biggest and the most beautiful lake in the country. It is magnificent from all angles and offers stunning views from each point. Most tourists coming to Lake Toba enjoy looking at the lush greenery and the hills surrounding it. Additionally, you can also explore the neighbouring villages and familiarize yourself with the Batak traditions. Also, don't forget to check out Samosir, the tiny island in the middle of the lake.

Conclusion

Whether you're looking for a relaxing holiday, or you want an adventure, you will find everything in Indonesia. You can enjoy the country's rich culture as well as tour the amazing mountains and glorious temples. Apart from that, the beautiful beaches will allow you to engage in thrilling water sports such as scuba diving, kayaking and snorkelling. So, next time you're planning a holiday, you would want to consider this sprawling archipelago in the Pacific Ocean.
