

BEST AND WORST RATED AIRPORTS IN SPAIN REVEALED

Are your flight problems in Spain wearing you out? Holidu brought to light which are the top-rated airports in Spain. Based on a massive extraction of ratings and reviews from Google Maps, the definitive ranking of Spanish airports rated by users has been created. Here are the top-rated airports in Spain.

1. Airport of Alicante - Elche (4.3 rating / 10,547 reviews)

We have already seen it among the best European airports, but also the Airport of Alicante - Elche, is the best-rated airport in Spain. It is considered the main airport of the Valencian Community and the region of Murcia.

Travelers praise its organization, brightness, and spacious design, in addition to having a wide gastronomic and commercial offer that will make you not mind spending a few hours at this airport.

And thanks to its privileged location, in an area of great tourist interest such as the Costa Blanca, travelers are very close to fantastic cities such as Benidorm, Calpe, Denia, Javea, Torrevieja and Murcia.

2. Menorca Airport (4.3 rating / 3,597 reviews)

Menorca Airport is the main airport on the island, which sees a staggering 3,500,000 passengers pass through its terminals annually. Being a relatively small airport with only two terminals, Maó airport is very convenient; it has all kinds of services such as restaurants, cafes, fashion stores and souvenir stores with all the most typical products of the island.

Without a doubt, this will be the perfect start of your trip when you want to visit this wonderful island declared by UNESCO as a biosphere reserve.

3. La Palma Airport (4.3 rating / 1,480 reviews)

La Palma airport is located just 8 kilometers from the center of Santa Cruz de la Palma. Every year it receives an important number of passengers, around 1,200,000, mainly national, but also international.

From this year onwards there are prospects for growth, with new improvements and extensions that will increase the capacity to more than 2 million passengers per year. In addition, a new glass terminal on 8 floors will allow the airport to be enjoyed as never before. Panoramic terraces, new restaurants, stores and services for children will soon be available.

4. Palma de Mallorca Airport (4.2 rating / 19,107 reviews)

Palma de Mallorca International Airport is the third most important airport in Spain. It is located on the island of Mallorca and is also popularly known as Mallorca Airport or Son Sant Joan Airport, which is only a few kilometers away from the Balearic capital.

Due to the great tourist attraction of the island, more than 29 million passengers pass through its terminals. If you have to spend a few hours at this airport, don't worry. The airport has plenty of stores and restaurants where you can relax and enjoy a few hours of peace and quiet.

5. Gran Canaria Airport (4.2 rating / 10,565 reviews)

The fifth place of the best airports in Spain is taken by the busiest airport in the Canary Islands, Gran Canaria Airport. Located on the east coast and only 19 kilometers from the city of Las Palmas, it has become a key point for the arrival of tourists from around the world visiting the Canary Islands. Mainly tourists from Germany, the United Kingdom and Russia, who seek to visit the magnificent scenery offered by the island of Gran Canaria and its excellent temperatures throughout the year.

The other end of the rating is also very important for any traveler heading to Spain. Beware, here come the 5 worst-rated airports in Spain:
