Best Hidden Gems for Party-Goers in New Jersey

New Jersey has become renowned for being a cultural and historical hub on the West Coast. While many people head to New York and the glitz and glam of Times Square, often, they miss out on what is on offer just a short drive away.

No matter where you are, from the city to the beach, there are endless choices when it comes to where you want to have a good time. With dozens of party blocks in New Jersey, here are some of the best spots to visit when you're in the Garden State.

Yankee Doodle Tap Room

A great place to start the night off has to be Yankee Doodle Tap Room. Found in the beautiful Nassau Inn, the Tap Room is over 200 years old and still has many of the features you would have found in the old days.

The gastropub has a great selection of food and beer and is the perfect place to fuel up before a night on the town.

Anchor Rock Club

The Anchor Rock Club is famed for hosting some of the best music the city has to offer. With everything from classic Country to EDM and a few parties thrown in the mix, the club has everything you need for a great night out.

The only thing to remember is that you need to book early; tickets for shows sell out really fast. However, the time and effort are certainly worth it if you want a true taste of New Jersey music.

Albert Music Hall

Not to be confused with the Royal Albert in the UK, the Albert Music Hall is a stalwart in the tri-state music scene. Visitors can enjoy hours of country and bluegrass music, with bands changing every 30 minutes.

The small cabin is tricky to find if you aren't familiar with the area; however, brushing shoulders with the locals and feeling the history and passion of what is around you is sure to be a night to remember.

Songbird Karaoke

There are very few things that you can do with friends that are more enjoyable than a night of karaoke. The venue offers party packages, allowing you to enjoy a night with a couple of people or pick a bigger room if you're out with a group.

The packages come with food and drinks, and the private rooms and snacks set you up for a night of singing, dancing, and fun.

Bar Anticipation

Found a short drive from the ocean, Bar Anticipation is one of the best spots to be, day or night. The bar offers an amazing VIP experience that includes cabanas, drinks, and a huge menu for a meal or two after a day at the beach.

Once the sun goes down, you can make your way onto the Grotto Beach, Anticipations outdoor dance floor. The club offers a small slice of paradise right in the middle of the hustle and bustle of the Jersey Shore.

Daddy O

A favorite amongst locals, Daddy O can be found on Long Beach Island, and offers one of the best spots to end your day, have a date, or hang out with friends. The rooftop bar and restaurant also have some of the best sunset views around.

If you don't want to cut your time in the area short, Daddy O is also a hotel. The rooms are very well-equipped, can fit a family or group of friends, and will leave you well-rested for another day of adventure.

Martell's Tiki Bar

A tiki bar is probably not something you would associate with Jersey, but Martell's has set the standard. Known as the "Jersey Shore island getaway," Martell's is lined with palm trees and is found a few steps off the beach.

There are a few restaurants to choose from, as well as live entertainment. With regular beach parties and club nights, Martell's is your one-stop-shop for beachfront entertainment throughout the Summer.

Jenks Club

If you ever watched the reality hit that was Jersey Shore, you will be very familiar with Jenks. While it is popular with locals, it is usually overlooked by visitors to the Shore. Found on the famous Jersey Shore boardwalk, Jenks has played host to hundreds, even thousands of parties over the years.

You can visit it during the day for a relaxing afternoon lunch, or wait for nighttime when the real party starts. Jenks events are legendary, and you will be out partying until the early hours.

Parker House

Parker House is probably one of the most unusual places you're going to go to have a good time. The building is a classic Victorian beachside property that has been converted into one of the most popular places to dance and have a good time.

Located a couple of minutes away from the beach, Parker House also offers a variety of meals, including fine-dining seafood or their famous tavern burger.

The Stone Pony

The Stone Pony is a very famous institution in New Jersey but is probably an unknown entity for visitors to the state. However, no journey is complete without a stop at this legendary music venue and bar.

Over the years, it has played host to acts such as Bruce Springsteen and Jon Bon Jovi and is often credited with launching their careers. Their calendar is always packed with some of the best talent around, and you're assured of an unforgettable show no matter when you drop in.

Wonderbra

If a daytime party is what you're looking for, then there is no better place to start and even stay than Wonderbar. You can bring your dog along for their very enjoyable "Yappy Hour," where you and your four-legged friend can enjoy some socializing and relaxing with the fresh smell of the sea in the air.

If you don't have a furry companion, then Wonderbar is a great place to eat and enjoy a few house cocktails. Watch the sunset with a drink in hand, or head down to the beach after dinner for a walk in the water.
