Selection of summer resorts in Bulgaria

To the east, Bulgaria borders the Black Sea, and the Bulgarian coastline is 378 km. Many resorts and several large seaside towns are located on it. They have five-star super luxurious complexes where you can enjoy relaxation and relaxing activities. Some of them are:

3. Varna. It is the largest city on the Black Sea coast. Known as the Black Sea Capital. A large resort, commercial, cultural, transport and centre. There are many beautiful and luxurious hotels on its territory. In the Black Sea city, you can find everything you are looking for for your vacation. From peace and privacy from work and personal commitments to a rich nightlife - discos, bars, taverns, and various attractions. The beach strip is comprehensive, with clean sand without stones and other rocky formations.
4. Burgas. The second largest city on the Bulgarian Black Sea coast. In recent years very well economically developed. Varna's rival for taking away the title "Black Sea Capital". In Burgas, you will find from small guest houses to huge and stylish and luxurious hotel complexes.
5. Sunny Beach. Known as the entertainment capital. 24/7 entertainment life reigns here. Sunny Beach is home to the most up-to-date nightclubs and discotheques. There's something for everyone: if you're looking for wild nightlife and partying, you're in the right place. Remember that after the round-the-clock entertainment, you need to sleep and relax. This can be done in luxurious hotels and hotel complexes along the coast or the centre of the resort.
6. Golden sands. Known by its nickname, "The Pearl of the Bulgarian Black Sea". A relatively new resort built in the last 60 years. The sand on the Beach is golden and delicate, the sea clean and transparent. An ideal place to relax. We recommend some ultra-luxurious five-star holders.
7. Nessebar. Founded about 3200 years ago, the city is under the protection of UNESCO. It uniquely combines the old and the new - traditions and innovation. In the old town, you can rest in guest houses built about 200 years ago, while in the new part you can stay in one of the luxurious hotels.
8. Sozopol. The city is one of the oldest in Bulgaria. Famous fishing, church and wine centre. There are hotel complexes for all tastes.

Wherever you stay, you are sure to be satisfied. Bulgarians are known for their hospitality and developing tourism, and only a few foreigners have decided to live in this small but fascinating country.

If you are travelling on business, your destination will most likely be the capital Sofia or the large regional centre such as Plovdiv, Stara Zagora, Varna or Burgas. Boiana MG will take care of your comfort and provide you with beautiful memories of Bulgaria.
